Hannie Huang

Department of Economics, University of Auckland, New Zealand
hannie.huang@auckland.ac.nz | +64 27 334 9426

Education

University of Auckland — Ph.D. in Economics, submission expected October 2026 2022–present

Dissertation: Privacy Concerns and Trust: Implications for Innovation and Growth in the Data Economy.
Supervisors: Dr Haiping Zhang and Dr Alexandre Dmitriev.

University of Macau — Master of Social Sciences in Economics 2018–2020

Guangdong University of Finance — Bachelor of Economics, Credit Management 2014–2018

Research and Teaching Fields

Economics: Macroeconomics, Innovation and Growth, Digital economy, Principle of Economics, Applied Econometrics
Analytics: Business Analytics, Quantitative methods, Machine Learning.
Additional teaching: International Finance.

Research

A. Job market paper

Data-Driven Innovation and Privacy Concerns in a Schumpeterian Growth Model
With Haiping Zhang and Alexandre Dmitriev. Under review at Journal of Economic Behavior & Organization.
Models consumer data as an innovation input with privacy costs; characterises growth and welfare implications of data taxes and subsidies.

B. Working paper

Privacy Concerns, Trust, and Monitoring: Evidence from Europe
Uses ESS Round 10 data from 20 countries and generic machine learning inference to study framing responses and heterogeneity by institutional trust.

C. Research in progress

Marketization, Trust, and Crime in China (with Wenyi Wang).
Ageing, Immigration, and Automation (with Haiping Zhang and Zhuo Zhang).

Research Experience

Research Assistant, Dr Charlotte Zhan Oct. 2023–Oct. 2024

Digitised research data from historical literature.

Research Assistant, Prof. Natasha Hamilton-Hart, NZ Asia Institute Apr. 2023–Apr. 2024

Developed a Samsung–Apple research proposal; analysed supply chain restructuring amid geopolitical uncertainty.

Policy Briefs and Research Reports

Samsung's Reconstruction of its Global Production Networks: From China to Vietnam, from Vietnam to Diversification. Briefing Note, New Zealand Asia Institute, November 2023.

Conference and Seminar Presentations

Forthcoming: Econometric Society Australasian Meeting (ESAM), Adelaide, 23–27 November 2026; PhD-EVS Seminar, Job Market Paper Series, 26 November 2026.
2026: 12th HKEA Biennial Conference, Macao; 32nd Conference on Computing in Economics and Finance, Venice; Seminar in Macroeconomics, University of Konstanz; 3rd Macro Development Workshop, Melbourne.
2025: NZAE PhD Workshop, Wellington; UABS PhD Conference, Auckland; 39th Annual PhD Conference in Economics & Business, UNSW Sydney.

Teaching Experience

Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Auckland 2023–present

Undergraduate

Principles of Economics S1 2023–present
Design and deliver active-learning tutorials and simulations; provide exam review sessions and student consultations.

International Trade S1 2023; S2 2026
Deliver workshops on video presentations and trade policy evaluation, linking models to evidence; provide office hours.

Macroeconomic Analysis S1 2024; S1 2025
Designed and delivered tutorials and a mathematics review workshop; moderated student group presentations.

International Finance S2 2023–2025; S1 2026
Delivered tutorials and student consultations in international finance.

Understanding the Global Economy Summer School 2025, 2026
Delivered intensive-format tutorials and student consultations.

Postgraduate

Economics and Business Analytics Q1 2025; Q3 2026
Master of Professional Accounting: delivered analytics workshops/labs and assessed analytical reports.

Decision Analytics Q2 2025; Q2 2026
Master of Business Analytics: led labs including Monte Carlo simulation; assessed group business reports.

Economics for Financial Analysts Q4 2024; Q4 2025
Master of Applied Finance: designed assessment workshops and provided feedback.

The Global Economy and New Zealand Q3 2023–2026
Postgraduate Diploma in Business: assessed reports on economic analysis and international trade.

Academic Service and Outreach

Competition Administrator, New Zealand Economics Competition 2025–2026
Coordinated school outreach, registrations, Inspera testing and awards ceremonies for 2,500+ entrants; led volunteers.

NZ APEC Study Centre Annual Workshops 2023; 2026
Supported hybrid event delivery; prepared the 2023 workshop summary report.

International Economics Workshop: Geoeconomics and the Future of Globalisation 2025
Supported event logistics, participant feedback, and social media communications.

Scholarships and Awards

University of Auckland Business GTA Doctoral Fees Bursary (He Manga Tauhokohoko) S2 2024–S2 2026

Bank of China (Macau Branch) Scholarship (2019); Outstanding Graduate, Guangdong University of Finance (2018).

Software and Languages

Software: Python, R, Stata, MATLAB, EViews, TSP, Excel, LaTeX.
Languages: Mandarin (native); English (fluent); Cantonese (intermediate).

References

All referees are at the University of Auckland. Available upon request.